

Lawrence Reid Houston

General Counsel, Central Intelligence Agency

Born 14 January 1913 in St. Louis, Missouri;

Son of <sup>Houston, Secretary of Agriculture</sup>
and later Secretary of the Treasury, under President Woodrow Wilson, and

Married 14 June 1939 to Jean Wellford
Randolph who was born in Charlottesville, Virginia
2 February 1918. They have two children:
a son, David Lawrence Houston, born in 1947 and a daughter, Debra Jean, born in 1945.

Education: Bachelor of Arts in History,
Harvard, 1935; LL.B., University of Virginia, 1939;
Advanced studies, Georgetown University Law School, 1952 and Harvard University 1953.

Employment: White and Case, <sup>New York</sup> ~~NY~~ Law Firm, 1939-1943; U.S. Army 1943; OSS, Assistant General Counsel, General Counsel, 1944-46; S.S.U., G.I.G., C.I.A., General Counsel 1946 — .

Awarded CIA Intelligence Medal of Merit
for outstanding service, 1957.